AUDITOR ANNOUNCES ANNUAL ITINERARY

FOR PURPOSE OF RECEIVING RETURNS OF PROPERTY FOR TAXATION

CITES LAW

Regarding Making of Returns and Liability for Poll Tax

County Auditor Winston Smith yesterday announced the schedule of dates and places where deputies of his office will be for the purpose of receiving returns of property for taxation.

The auditors' office will be open to receive returns of personal property for taxation for the fiscal year from January 1 to February 20, next. It is announced that all returns of personal property must be itemized. That is, a taxpayer must not return his personal property in a lump sum, but must itemize the statement, naming the various items on which he is to pay tax.

Real estate is not to be returned this year, but all transfers of real estate made since returns were last made should be noted upon the return blank, the person stating to whom the property was sold or from whom it was purchased. The township assessors are required to make returns for all those persons who neglect to make their own returns within the specified time. This makes it possible for delinquents to escape the 50 per cent penalty. Confederate soldiers are exempt from poll tax. All other males, except those incapable of earning a livelihood, from being maimed or for other causes, are liable for a poll tax. Trustees are required to make a list of polls and dogs in their districts and turn the same into the assessors before February 20.

The auditor states that all new school lines for new school districts must be made note of and handed to him before April 1. If the changes are not given by that time they will not get on the books until the following year. All persons are cautioned to see that their property is listed in the proper school district. All tax levies for school districts must be in the hands of the auditor on or before the first of June, next.

Deputies of the auditor's office will take returns at the following places on the dates named:

- Holland's store, on Friday, January 1st.
- Barnes, on Saturday, January 2d.
- Iva, on Tuesday, January 5th.
- Iva Cotton Mill, on Wednesday, January 6.
- Starr, on Wednesday afternoon, January 6.

WRITES OF VALUE OF SCHOOL SUPERVISOR

STATE INSPECTOR RURAL SCHOOLS GIVES HIS VIEWS OF WORK

THE IMPROVEMENTS

Have Been in the Betterment of Actual Schoolroom Instruction.

A letter setting forth conclusions as to the value of supervisors of rural schools in counties of this State, based upon investigations which have been made along that line, has been received by Miss Maggie M. Garlington, county supervisor of rural schools, from Prof. Leuco Gunter, State Inspector of rural elementary schools.

The letter is interesting in that it places an estimate upon the work of the school supervisor, and should be of interest to school patrons throughout Anderson county, as this is one of the counties of the State in which a supervisor is employed. The letter received by Miss Garlington reads as follows:

"For some time I have had it on my mind to write a letter to the supervisors of schools in the several counties. When I first took up this work I found myself almost lost in the immensity of it. My first endeavor was to find what might be done and how the State supervisor might proceed. During the past few months I have visited several counties, have been learning conditions, and have been reaching some conclusions, as to my work. I have hesitated to write any general letters to supervisors until I had had some opportunity to view and study the field.

"The work of the county supervisor was one that I had had no opportunity of seeing and had no means of measuring its value. One of my foremost wishes was to see the effects of your work in your respective counties. I have not had opportunity to meet personally as yet all the counties where supervisors have been employed, but I have visited several counties where supervisors have been at work for some time, and I have visited other counties where there have been no supervisors. As a result of this observation I am pleased to say that the personnel of the teaching force and the spirit of the teaching body in the counties where there are supervisors justifies beyond measure the work that you are doing. I wish it were possible for every county in the State to have a supervising teacher and I believe that one in every county would greatly strengthen the work that you are now doing in the 13 counties.

"To me the most striking work that you have been able to do has been in the improvement of the actual schoolroom instruction. My observation in this fall has led me to feel that the great need of the country school teacher is to know what to do and how to do it. I have seen evidence of the fact where county supervisors have been at work that you are succeeding admirably in thus strengthening the character of the teaching. This is a phase of the work of every teacher that the public at large does not readily see and appreciate, but it is the one that the school official very readily detects; and after all it is the one that counts most for the children in school and renders the greatest service.

"I wish to be of as much service to the county supervisors as is possible. I shall frequently depend upon your suggestion and advice. I hope that we may be helpful to each other and that through me to some extent the county supervisors may be helpful to one another. For this reason I should be pleased if the county supervisors would feel free to use my office as a sort of clearing house for information. If you will be so kind as to send me reports of your work, any plans or suggestions that you devise for your teachers or for any use whatever in your county, I should be glad to distribute these plans to the other supervisors to that one may profit by the experience of another.

"I crave a frank and open-hearted discussion of our work at all times. My work with the county supervisors already this fall has been a genuine delight to me and has in a large measure taken the place of that helpful association with teachers that I have had the past several years in city school work. I trust that you will feel free to call upon me at any time in order that I may be of service, as I shall likely be compelled to call upon you."

What kind of plants are best suited for sunny gardens, shady gardens, rock places, sandy places and window boxes is the subject of an interesting and instructive article which has been received by Miss Maggie M. Garlington, county supervisor of rural schools, from Miss Ellen Eddy Shaw, editor of Children's Garden Magazine, published by Doubleday, Page & Co. of Garden City, New York.

The articles should prove of special value to school teachers, pupils and school improvement associations throughout the county, as it gives information which probably could not be had from a reliable source without considerable difficulty. By glancing at this table one can tell to a nicety what kind of plants are most suitable for a certain kind of garden. The table is as follows:

- Plants for Sunny Gardens—Balsam, gallardia, nasturtium, portulaca, petunia, cornflower, ageratum, snapdragon, poppy, sunflower.
- Plants for Shady Gardens—Pansy, fuch, begonias, fern, myrtle, godetia, nemophila, bluebell, phlox, feverfew.
- Plants for Rock Places—baby's breath, candytuft, clarkia, nasturtium, portulaca, columbine.
- Plants for Sandy Places—Godetia, portulaca, zinnia, nasturtium, poppy mallow, sunflower.
- Plants for Window Boxes—Fuchsia, geranium, alyssum, candytuft, begonia, wandering Jew, English ivy, dracaena, sinicus, coco palm.

COSTLY STRIKE IN HISTORY OF MINING

Sixty persons are known to have been killed and about 50 injured as a result of disorders incident to the strike. The battle between strikers, mine guards and State troops at Ludlow, April 20, 1914, ended in the destruction of the strikers' tent colony. Twelve children and two women were found dead in the ruins. The arrival of federal troops April 30, 1914, restored peace.

Twenty-seven official and individual inquiries into the trouble have been conducted. The inquiry by a subcommittee of the committee on mines and mining of the house of representatives, conducted in February, 1914, and the investigation by the federal commission on industrial relations now in progress in Denver are among the most important.

COMMON PLEAS COURT GRINDING OUT CASES

NON-SUIT ORDERED IN SUIT OF SUMMEY AGAINST COUNTY

LAND CASE UP

Court Now Engaged in Case Involving Suit for Recovery of Land.

One case was disposed of by non-suit and trial of another taken up yesterday in the court of common pleas. In the matter of Mrs. Willie and B. L. Shummev against the county of Anderson, a suit for $6,000 damages, a non-suit was ordered by the court yesterday forenoon, after which the case of J. C. Milford versus L. V. Greer was taken up. This is a suit for the recovery of some 47 acres of land, and when court recessed at 6 o'clock last night the matter was ready to go to the jury.

Carpenter vs. Sadler. In the case of L. F. Carpenter versus John E. Sadler, which was taken up Monday, the jury found for the plaintiff in the sum of $250 cash. The suit grew out of an automobile deal and the plaintiff sued for $500 actual damages.

county was taken up Monday afternoon and one witness, Mrs. Summey, was on the witness stand when court recessed for the night. Yesterday morning the case was resumed and the following witnesses placed on the stand: B. L. Summey, W. B. Clayton, C. M. Langston, Sedgewick Johnston, J. A. Allgood, W. E. Johnson, W. H. Martin, Dr. E. G. Clayton, F. E. Allgood and Dr. E. G. Clayton. The plaintiffs sought $6,000 damages as a result of injuries alleged to have been received by Mrs. Summey when she was thrown from a buggy while driving across a bridge in Garvin township, it being claimed that the accident was caused by the tire of the buggy dropping into a crack in the bridge. Following the close of the plaintiff's testimony Solicitor Kurtz P. Smith, representing the county, moved for a non-suit, which was granted by the court.

Milford versus Greer. At 11:30 o'clock the case of Milford against Greer was called. This matter occupied the remainder of the day, and when court recessed last night the matter was ready to go to the jury. The plaintiff, formerly a resident of Honea Path but now living in Greenville, is suing for the recovery of 47 acres of land. The plaintiff is represented by Bonham, Watkins and Allen while the defendant is represented by A. H. Darnall.

A case set for trial yesterday, that of the Southern Railway against the Williamston Lumber Company, having been discontinued, Judge Menninger excused until 9:30 o'clock this morning all jurors not engaged in the case then being heard.

The jury sitting on the Milford-Greer case is composed of the following: W. W. Scott, T. J. Bruce, B. O. Wilson, J. M. Holliday, E. V. Harbin, C. S. Maret, J. N. Ivester, R. K. Maddox, E. B. Geer, H. M. Morrow, W. J. Wood and W. A. G. Jamieson.

Anderson College.

Yes, I want to see the college too. It sits like a queen upon a beautiful hilltop, and has a better site than any Baptist female college in the State. The buildings are stately and imposing, and all the departments seem to be fully and thoroughly equipped. Judge Cox was with me, and a Sumter girl, whom I had helped to bring into young womanhood, acted as our efficient and genial guide. We went enchanted from room to room, and felt that the half had not been told concerning Anderson college. Time would fail me to describe all the fixtures I saw for cooking, painting, learning music, physics, chemistry, mathematics and lots of other things about which my ignorance prevents me from descending too profusely. Anderson has been hard hit by the German and French bullets; but the folks there still hold high heads, and the day is drawing nigh when the College campus will swarm with scholars, and the demand for new buildings will be heard as: over the Saluda Association and to the uttermost ends of the earth—especially to the uttermost ends of the earth.

But I am about to depart for Bennettsville, and must call a halt.—C. C. Brown in the Baptist Courier.
